Annual Meeting and Continuing Education Seminar

This is ASCE's Arkansas Section's annual meeting and an exciting time for the civil engineering profession. Last year we had over 250 people attend our annual meeting with expectations of exceeding that number this year. In addition to inviting civil engineers this year we also plan on having surveyors, licensed water plant and wastewater plant operators, and city public works officials. A large contributor to our success is the sponsorship from vendors.

Exhibit room will be available both Thursday, October 18th and Friday, October 19th, further details will be issued when the registration packets are issued. Booths will be placed in the ballroom where the food will be served for the event. There are a limited number of booth spaces available, so it will be first come first serve on registration. Booths will be assigned and will depend on sponsorship level. Please choose level of sponsorship requested: Exhibits can set up after 6:00 pm the day before the meeting (Oct 16th) and booths can be removed after the lunch meeting on Friday.

Platinum Level: $1000 Booth space in exhibit hall to display literature and products on 6'x30" table with skirt. No background is provided. Company name and logo printed in registration forms which will be sent to be sent out. Also you will get a 1 hour slot for technical presentation. This level gets you one table and 2 chairs, with the registration of two (2) persons of which one will be the presenter. If additional people will be at your table then they must complete a registration packet and pay applicable registration fees.

Gold Level: $750 Booth space in exhibit hall to display literature and products on 6'x30" table with skirt, no background provided.
